BLUE SKIES AHEAD

“The sons and daughters of Maine will be grateful for your investment in their future.”

President Paul W. Ferguson

SINCE GRACE, JENNY AND I arrived at UMaine just over two years ago, we have truly enjoyed our interactions with many alumni and friends who genuinely care about this remarkable university. Events like the Stillwater Society dinner and the Charles F. Allen Legacy Society luncheon have allowed us to meet and thank hundreds of donors. We also have had the opportunity to engage supporters at cultural, educational and athletic events, and at meetings with individuals and couples in their homes and businesses.

It has been a joy and privilege for us to join with those who make UMaine a philanthropic priority and to witness the impact of these gifts. I am especially pleased to share with you that 100 percent of the President’s Cabinet and the university’s Board of Visitors generously gave to this year’s Annual Fund and collectively contributed more than $200,000. It is a true sign of commitment when those who lead an institution are inspired to give financially, in addition to the excellent work they do every day on its behalf.

Over the years, I have learned that while donors are inspired for many different reasons, our hearts embrace a common theme: making life better for others — specifically for our students and the state we serve. While I’ve enjoyed many high points in my personal and professional life, nothing surpasses the sense of reward and accomplishment that accompanies assisting others to fulfill their potential.

Many of you are familiar with the Blue Sky Project, UMaine’s strategic planning process (umaine.edu/blueskyplan), which focuses on how to define and deliver our 21st-century mission of teaching, research and public service in a financially sustainable manner. Blue Sky also is about reconnecting the flagship university to the economic and cultural needs of Maine and the nation so that we may continue to have a major impact on the quality of people’s lives.

Over the past two years, a tremendous spirit of tenacity, collaboration and pride has evolved as some of our best faculty, staff, students and volunteers have explored and debated Blue Sky priorities and strategies. But with the state currently contributing only about 42 percent of our operating budget, and a mandate to keep tuition low in order to guarantee student access, it is donors like you who hold the real keys to the University of Maine’s future level of excellence.

Unrestricted gifts that provide us the maximum flexibility to move forward are one of these keys. We also are counting on benefactors to champion strategic university priorities, including undergraduate scholarships, graduate fellowships, endowed professorships and chairs, the revitalization of our historic district to house new innovative academic and outreach programs, and the enhancement of signature programs such as those in engineering.

Whether you’ve been a donor to UMaine for years or have just made your first gift, I thank you for your thoughtfulness and invite you to join us in a journey that promises “Blue Skies ahead.” The sons and daughters of Maine will be grateful for your investment in their future.

With best personal regards and deep appreciation for your support,

Paul W. Ferguson

Eric F. Rolfson

Dear Friends,

MOST OF YOU who are turning the pages of this report have already made a gift to the University of Maine, and for this we are grateful. We view this report as one more way to say thank you, and to illustrate how philanthropy changes lives in Orono, across our state and around the world.

Generous donors allow the University of Maine to realize its commitment to excellence in ways that would be impossible with public support alone. Gifts of every size translate into extraordinary experiences, not only for our students, but for the faculty, coaches and other members of the UMaine family who invest their lives in teaching, research, creative expression, athletic competition and much more.

The impact of private support extends even further, enhancing the quality of life for many Maine citizens by funding a university that conducts research in areas such as wind and tidal energy, opiate addiction among infants, and forest ecosystem management. The thoughtfulness of our donors also funds vital outreach, such as University of Maine Cooperative Extension's Harvest for Hunger. Since 2000, this program has resulted in the donation of 600 tons of fresh produce to hungry Mainers.

We are energized by a new spirit of collaboration among those who share a commitment to raising private support on behalf of UMaine. Most who have ties to our state appreciate the value of "neighbors helping neighbors," such as when a tractor or boat needs repair, a storm strikes, a bumper crop of tomatoes ripen, or someone needs a ride to town. Working with our donors, together, as partners, ensures that we are in the best possible position to further the mission of the "college of our hearts always."

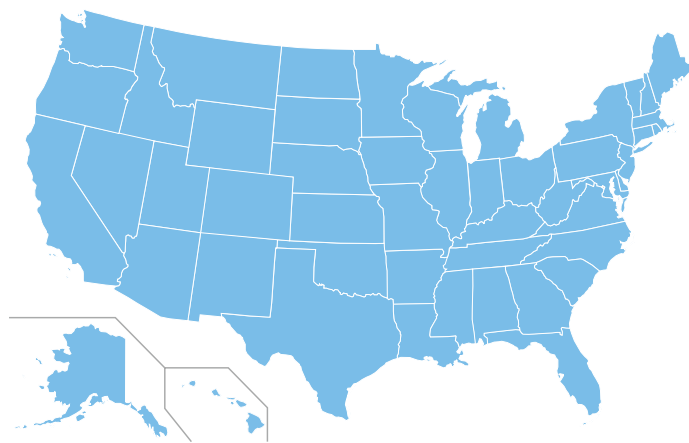

Yours for the University of Maine,

Jeffery N. Mills '82

“My experience at UMaine has been truly extraordinary and my scholarship has played a very important role. As part of Semester at Sea, I visited 12 countries; I’ve been to Canada with the International Affairs Association for a Model UN conference, and while studying abroad in Spain, I was able to go to Morocco, Ireland, France, Greece, Croatia and Italy as well. So, in total that is 20! I’m truly blessed. These opportunities have only increased my interest in working abroad after I graduate.”

Ariel Bothen '14, Coulombe Scholar

“I believe in supporting UMaine because it works to strengthen the economy and make the state a better place to live. It’s a key ingredient to the success of the state as a whole.”

Paul G. Coulombe '75 received a Stillwater Presidential Achievement Award at the society’s annual dinner in South Portland. Coulombe established a generous scholarship program as part of Campaign Maine.

“UMaine broadened and strengthened my leadership skills. As a member of the Harvard Business School Class of 2015, I’m taking additional steps toward becoming a C-level executive capable of tackling challenging world problems, while positively influencing the lives of those around me. Although I am a recent UMaine graduate, I make philanthropy a personal priority. I am proud to be a member of the President’s Club at UMaine, and look forward to investing further in my alma mater.”

“It was like someone flicked a switch. As a recent alumna I really wanted to give back to the Pulp & Paper Foundation and UMaine. It was very convenient to make a gift online, and it felt great to be able to contribute to a program that did so much for me.”

Codi Slike '07 is a former Pulp and Paper Scholar and currently works as a Process Engineering Leader for Verso, Inc. in Jay, Maine. Slike and other UMaine alumni are loyal supporters of the University of Maine Pulp & Paper Foundation.

2013 ENDOWMENTS/HOLDINGS

“We have phenomenal students who benefit deeply from gifts like ours. As a faculty member, I understand that private support provides us with important flexibility, enhancing classes and creating hands-on learning opportunities for our students.”

Emmanuel Boss and his wife, Lee Karp-Boss, are loyal members of UMaine’s President’s Club. Both are affiliated with UMaine’s School of Marine Sciences and conduct research that takes them around the world. Here, Emmanuel Boss takes a break from his research while on an expedition off the coast of Greenland.

Karen Lucky '16, who is majoring in studio art and English, is among the students benefitting from UMaine’s new Wyeth Family Studio Art Center. Private support has been essential to the renovation of two facilities on campus housing UMaine’s art programs.

Stuart Price addresses the crowd at the dedication of the most recent addition to UMaine’s athletic facilities. Price, along with his wife, Linda, led the effort to raise money for the new batting pavilion named in honor of his father-in-law, former UMaine second baseman and member of the UMS Board of Trustees Paul J. Mitchell ’49.

2013 ENDOWMENTS/HOLDINGS

“As a player in the biotechnology arena, I have a deep understanding of the importance of venture capital. The leaders of today’s organizations have a responsibility to raise and direct investors’ money strategically and wisely. I intentionally make my donation to the Annual Fund as an unrestricted gift. That way, UMaine’s leaders can take advantage of special opportunities or handle an unexpected challenge. This is a matter of trust. I know I can count on UMaine to use my gifts wisely, in ways that really make a difference for students and faculty.”

Many UMaine alumni live in the greater Boston region, where they have experienced tremendous personal and professional success. Ann Merrifield '73, '76G is among these successful graduates. She chooses to give back to her alma mater by making a generous annual gift to be used where the funds are needed most.

WAYS OF GIVING

CHARITABLE GIVING often carries significant tax benefits for donors. All gifts to UMaine and its fundraising partners are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. If you have questions regarding the tax implications of your giving, please consult your attorney or financial adviser. The type of gift that is best for you depends upon many factors, including your age, health, family and employment situation, assets and lifestyle choices. Many companies will match your gift to UMaine, maximizing the impact of your personal philanthropy.

Cash

Most gifts that benefit the university come in the form of cash. Many donors choose to make their cash gift with a credit card, check or wire transfer. We invite donors to consider our secure and convenient online giving site (umaine.edu/givenow).

Appreciated Securities

A gift of long-term appreciated securities often has at least two advantages — it can provide an income tax deduction equal to the fair market value of the securities and may reduce capital gains. It is possible to make a gift using shares of mutual funds, but such gifts typically require more advanced planning as the transfers take longer.

Real Estate and Tangible Personal Property

Make a gift that benefits UMaine and often carries tax advantages. The allowable deduction for a gift of real estate or tangible personal property (such as works of art or boats) depends upon a number of factors. Contact the University of Maine Foundation for more information.

Life Insurance

You may make a gift of life insurance to the university or one of its fundraising partners by naming it as owner and irrevocable beneficiary of a policy. The gift may be a paid policy, an existing policy with cash value or a new policy.

Charitable Gift Annuity

Through a simple contract, you agree to donate cash, stocks or other assets to the University of Maine Foundation. In return, you and someone else, if you choose, receive a fixed amount each year for the rest of your lives.

Trusts

There are a variety of ways to create trusts that benefit you, your loved ones and UMaine. Choosing the “right” trust or other planned giving vehicle depends on your age, assets and many other factors.

Payroll Deduction

UMaine employees may make a gift through payroll deduction. Simply contact the Office of University Development for a payroll deduction form.

Bequests

The most common future gift is a bequest, where the donor includes UMaine in a will or an estate plan.

INCREASING THE IMPACT OF YOUR GIFTS TO UMAINE

There are several ways to ensure that your gift is especially meaningful to you and your loved ones, and has a maximum impact on the University of Maine.

Honoring Others

You can make a gift supporting any area of the University of Maine in memory or honor of a professor, coach, student, relative or friend. Gifts are a special way to celebrate a birthday or anniversary, or the graduation of a child, grandchild or other loved one. Memorial gifts are a thoughtful way to recognize a person’s influence and accomplishments, while advancing the mission of the University of Maine and helping the students we serve. When you make an honorary or memorial gift, we will (if requested) notify the honoree or next of kin, and will administer the gift as you direct.

Corporate Partnerships

In a similar vein, a growing number of companies, both large and small, are choosing to partner with UMaine in ways that are mutually beneficial. Corporate partnerships often involve internships and assistance with recruitment, which help companies connect with the best possible talent pool among UMaine students. The naming of laboratories and other facilities brings visibility for the company, and also is an important source of funding for equipment, scholarships, student travel and other needs. If you would like to explore how your company might become a philanthropic partner with UMaine for mutual benefit, contact Pat Cummings, Associate Vice President for University Development.

Every gift to the University of Maine makes extraordinary experiences possible, not only for our students and faculty, but for thousands of Maine citizens of all ages who benefit from our many outreach programs. While each and every gift is vital to UMaine's mission, the donor list in this report includes those individuals and organizations that have made gifts of at least $1,000 in fiscal year 2013 (July 1, 2012–June 30, 2013). All of these donors are members of the President's Club. Some are also members of other gift societies based on their lifelong giving and planned gifts to UMaine.

Stillwater Society

The Stillwater Society was created in 2000 to celebrate donors who have given at least $25,000 to the University of Maine over the course of their lifetime. Donors are eligible for the Society based on their cumulative outright gifts and irrevocable planned gifts. Some friends and alumni are members of the Stillwater Society as the result of a single gift; others are members as the result of faithful, long-time support. New members are inducted at a formal recognition dinner each year and presented with a pin symbolic of their respective Stillwater Society level. To learn more, contact the Office of University Development. (See page 4 for contact information).

Charles F. Allen Legacy Society

The Charles F. Allen Legacy Society, named for the University of Maine's first President, was established in 1995 to recognize and honor alumni and friends who intend to remember the University of Maine or its affiliated organizations by making a bequest or other form of planned or deferred gift. Such gifts will benefit the university in the years ahead without necessarily requiring that the donor fund the gift at the present time. While the gift is deferred, the benefits of membership in the Society begin immediately. If you let us know that you have provided at least $10,000 for the University of Maine or its affiliated organizations in your will, trust, pooled life income fund, life insurance policy, gift annuity or retirement fund, you immediately become a full member of the Society. Charles F. Allen Legacy Society members receive a membership certificate recognizing their intentions and a lapel pin. Members are also honored at a special event on campus.

L will appear after donor name.

President's Club

The President's Club is UMaine's "front door" to special donor recognition. Members of the President's Club give at least $1,000 a year to UMaine. Gifts can be unrestricted, or designated for a particular need or priority; they may be used for current operations, or directed toward an endowment. President's Club members range from recent graduates to senior alumni, represent virtually every major, are scattered across the country and share a common commitment to improving the lives of others. President's Club members receive a pin and are invited to a special brunch over Homecoming Weekend.

P will appear after donor name.

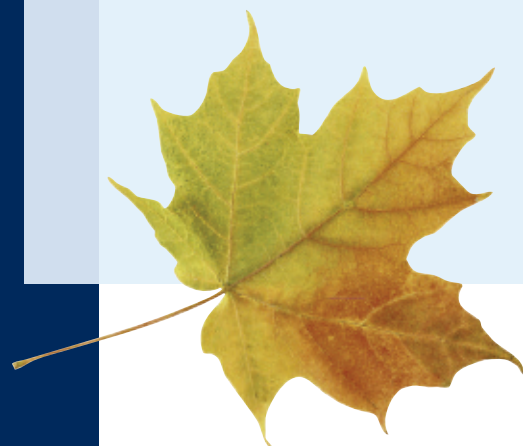

Triple Crown of Support

This report includes the names of alumni and friends who are truly shaping the future of the University of Maine through their gifts that qualify for recognition across all three of the major giving societies.

The Triple Crown is a realistic goal for many donors who make philanthropy a priority, plan ahead and thoughtfully consider the many ways of giving. There is no "ideal" way to make a gift; the timing and nature of your gifts will depend on your unique circumstances. We encourage you to work closely with your legal and financial advisers, as well as our fundraising professionals, to determine a path that is mutually beneficial for you, your loved ones and the University of Maine.

Between July 1, 2012 and June 30, 2013, donors gave $18,982,547 to support the mission of the University of Maine.

University of Maine students relied on more than $59 million in loans to finance their education in 2012–13.

Among 7,477 full-time undergraduates, 5,298 were determined to have financial need.

For the 2012–13 academic year, the university awarded donor-funded scholarships to 1,890 students, totaling $3,877,477 in scholarship aid.

The University of Maine is a leader in developing new products and services, creating solutions and testing innovative ideas for companies throughout Maine and the world. It conducts R&D in all seven of Maine’s designated technology sectors. From FY05 to FY13, the University of Maine filed more than 150 patents and more than 10 tech-based startup companies are commercializing UMaine technology.

UMaine holds
99 percent
of the patents granted
in the University of Maine System.

UMaine has received an “A” grade for Climate Change and Energy according to the College Sustainability Report Card (greenreportcard.org). Since 2005, the university has reduced greenhouse gas emissions by 16 percent and aims to achieve carbon neutrality by 2040.

UMaine’s student-run greenhouse and campus compost complex bring sustainability full circle, and align with UMaine’s leadership and commitment to environmental responsibility. The project grows greens for the UMaine dining facilities, building on the university’s Sustainable Agriculture Program.

It is also in keeping with UMaine’s national reputation as a green campus. In 2011 and 2012, UMaine was one of 16 colleges nationwide named to Princeton Review’s Green Honor Roll.

2013 DONORS

The University of Maine
Black Bears are the only NCAA Division I

athletics programs in the state.

The Harold Alfond® Foundation has been a major benefactor of UMaine
Athletics, donating more than $4.6 million to the Black Bear football program alone over the years. Challenge grants have extended the impact of their philanthropy, helping UMaine to raise additional support from alumni and friends, including former UMaine players.

2013 DONORS

Dr. Habib Dagher is the Bath Iron Works Professor of Structural Engineering and Director of UMaine’s Advanced Structures and Composites Center.

The University of Maine has 33 endowed professorships.

Professorships serve as an invaluable means of rewarding high-performing faculty, who can use income from the professorship for graduate students, equipment, travel, professional development, and other needs.

MAKING THE EXTRAORDINARY POSSIBLE

There are more than 105,000 UMaine alumni; many more have taken UMaine courses to enrich their personal and professional lives.

UMaine students traveled to more than 40 countries to take classes, participate in internships and conduct research.

Alumni with connections to fraternities and sororities are among some of UMaine's most faithful donors and volunteers. Greek life has existed at UMaine since 1874 and remains a strong influence: 1,046 students are active members of one of the 17 fraternities or seven sororities.

In the past three years, more than 24,000 students and guests have begun and ended campus tours at Buchanan Alumni House, a signature facility and venue for many special events. Buchanan is home to both the University of Maine Foundation and the University of Maine Alumni Association.

PLANNED GIFTS can ensure that a donor's philanthropic priorities continue to impact UMaine in perpetuity. Tom Hosmer '58 directed his planned gift of more than $8 million toward ongoing maintenance of the UMaine campus, including some of its signature facilities, such as Fogler Library. Hosmer's overall giving to UMaine totals nearly $10 million.

Thank you for your generous support of the University of Maine.
